

LACIS LUNCHTIME LECTURE SERIES: FALL 2022

We will be offering lectures in person (206 Ingraham Hall) and virtually via Zoom. Please check for details below.

September 20: "Traditional Music and Community in Mexico at the Turn of the 21st Century" | Presented by UW-alumna, Raquel Gonzalez-Paraiso, Musician, Researcher, and Educator; PhD in Ethnomusicology, UW-Madison | Virtual via ZOOM.

September 27: Book Presentation & Lecture: "Ni perversas ni traidoras: Ficciones de colaboración femenina en las dictaduras de Argentina y Chile" | Presented in Spanish (w/simultaneous Interpretation) by Ksenija Bilbija, Professor of Spanish, and former LACIS Faculty Director, UW-Madison | Virtual via ZOOM.

October 4: "Inca's Hydraulics System and the Pre-Inca Stage" | Presented by Jose De Pierola, Senior Advisor in Water Resources Management | HYBRID: In person, 206 Ingraham Hall \(with a Zoom option\).

October 11: "A Latinas Path into Oregon Wine" | Presented by Elena Rodriguez, President & Winemaker of Alumbra Cellars, as well as Viticulturist for the Rodriguez Family Vineyard | Virtual via ZOOM.

October 18: "Between Brown and Black: Anti-Racist Activism in Brazil" | Presented by Antonio José Bacelar da Silva, University of Arizona | Virtual via ZOOM.

October 25: "40 Days Without Food. The controversial public fast of Dr. Henry S. Tanner in New York, 1880" | Presented by Agustí Nieto-Galan, Professor of History of Science at the Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona (UAB) | HYBRID: In person, 206 Ingraham Hall \(with a Zoom option\).

November 1: "Play Throughout the Lifespan" | Presented (in Spanish) by Mercedes Gonzalez and Karen Haygood, LACIS alumna, and founder of Creando Little Language Learners | Virtual via ZOOM.

November 8: "The uncertain truth of the historical novel. Writing about Francisca Pizarro" | Presented by Alonso Cueto | HYBRID: In person, 206 Ingraham Hall \(with a Zoom option\).

November 15: Book Presentation/Lecture: "Milked: How an American Crisis Brought Together Midwestern Dairy Farmers and Mexican Workers" | Presented by Ruth Conniff | HYBRID: In person, 206 Ingraham Hall \(with a Zoom option\).

November 22: "Diversity for Monoculture: The United Fruit Company and Agricultural Research" | Presented by Dr. Megan Raby, UT-Austin | HYBRID: In person, 206 Ingraham \(with a ZOOM option\).

November 29: "Innovation cooperation to advance digital and sustainable development in Latin America" | Presented by Tinker Visiting Professor of Sociology, Dr. Glauco Arbix | HYBRID: In person, 206 Ingraham Hall \(with a Zoom option\).

December 6: "Territorial Reminders in Patricio Guzman's Geographical Triptych" | Presented by Dr. Charles George Allen | HYBRID: In person in 206 Ingraham Hall \(with a Zoom option\).